

Psalm 84

G J Elvey (Parish Psalter p.136)

O How amiable are thy dwellings: thou Lord of hosts! My soul hath a desire and longing, to enter into the courts of the Lord: my heart and my flesh rejoice in the living God.

9

15

Yea the sparrow hath found her an house, and the swallow a nest where she may lay her young: even thy alters, O lord of hosts my King and my God. Blessed are they that dwell in thy house: they will be al-way prais-ing thee. Blessed is the man whose strength is in thee: in whose heart are thy ways. Who going through the vale of misery, use it for a well; and the pools are filled with water. They will go from strength to strength: and unto the God of gods appeareth every one of them in Sion.

20

30

41

50

O Lord God of hosts hear my prayer: hearken O God of Ja-cob. Behold O God our de-fender: and look upon the face of thine a-nointed. For one day in thy courts; is bett-er than a thous and. I had rather be a door-keeper in the house of my God; than to dwell in the tents of un-godliness. For the Lord God is a-light and de-fence:

62

74

81

the Lord will give grace and worship, and no good thing shall he withhold from them that live a god-ly life— O Lord God of hosts: blessed is the man that putteth his trust in thee. Glory be to the father, and to the son: and to the ho-ly Ghost— As it was in the beginning, is now and e-ver shall be. World without end— A-men.

87

97
